Finance Update

- Zero dollars in our budget

Voting on Bylaws and Roberts Rules of Order presented by Ms. Gionet

- Bylaws were approved by unanimous decision
- Robert's Rules were approved by unanimous decision

Business Partner

- Chamane Williams: JMC Boutique LLC
- Small business owner
- As a stay at home mom, she learned how to make soap and other products
- Body/Hair Care, soaps, lotions, aprons, hair ties etc.
- Community fundraisers/events
- www.Myjmboutiques.com

School Goals Update presented by Mr. Willets

- Reading goals- needed adjustments from last year
- One teacher per grade level who collaborate with grade level ELA teachers
- Same rigor, same content, same text alignment has shown increase in growth
- Struggling readers will hopefully see that they will be at or above grade level standards by the time they leave PBMS
- Text interaction involves being critical thinkers
- FSA writing component is very different now. Students are given 2-3 passages to compare, form positions and opinions.

IB Update

- Community Service: Socktoberfest Fundraiser to support Limbs International. This organization provides limbs/prosthesis to children in developing countries. Every 200 dollars raised buys a limb for a child. Students buy socks for $3.00 a pair. The organization matches the donation of socks to donate to a local charity.
- Canned Food Drive: More access to food pantries due to Hurricane Matthew
- NJHS: Stop Hunger Now Fundraiser. Our goal is to raise 2500 dollars which will purchase 10,000 meal kits.
