CAMP DIRECTOR

Matt Clark graduated from Flagler College where he played basketball from 2011-2015. He played for his father, Bo Clark, who retired this year from Flagler College after coaching for 31 years. Matt became the 5th all-time leader in scoring in Flagler basketball history, as well as the 2nd all-time leader in three-point field goals made.

Matt will begin his 2nd annual camp this Summer. His father, Bo Clark, has been directing basketball camps for over 38 years in St. Augustine and in the Orlando area. Matt's brother, JP Clark, is currently a Player Development Coach with the Los Angeles Clippers.

Matt started his own basketball program known as "Hammer Basketball" in January, 2017 and developed several athletes from the North Florida area. The program includes player development both in group and individual work.
